IMIS respects your privacy and any personal communication between you and ourselves.

We will always comply with data protection legislation currently in force.

We will use the personal information you give us for membership purposes.

The information you provide will be processed by IMIS to deal with your application or to update your membership details.

We will not disclose your information to non-IMIS staff unless required by law.

We may also use your information to offer/provide you with our associated services.

We will not use your personal information for any other purposes without your consent, unless required by law.

We aim to protect your personal information.

We have implemented appropriate technical and managerial procedures to restrict access and ensure that your details are current, accurate and complete.

You have a right to see the information we hold about you and we will correct it if it is inaccurate.

We do monitor web traffic and keep track of the domains from which people visit us.

We analyse this data for trends and statistics and then discard it.
